NUTRITION SUPPORT & IV THERAPY

Myer's Cocktail / $180

Experience the benefits of the Myer's Cocktail, named after Dr. John Myers, who pioneered the use of vitamin and mineral drips to address various health concerns. This powerful blend includes essential B-vitamins, Magnesium, Calcium Gluconate, and Ascorbic Acid, designed to boost immunity and encourage relaxation. Whether you're looking to alleviate pain, manage asthma, tackle allergies, or reduce inflammation, the Myer's Cocktail offers a holistic approach to enhancing your well-being.

NAD+ / $499

NAD (Nicotinamide Adenine Dinucleotide) is crucial for energy production in the body, but its levels naturally decline with age, leading to fatigue, mental fog, dull skin, and poor sleep quality. Boosting NAD can help manage a wide range of health issues, enhancing mental clarity, memory, concentration, and alertness. NAD also improves athletic endurance and can reverse symptoms of chronic fatigue, helping you feel more vibrant and energized. Reignite your vitality with NAD+.

Elite Fuel / $180

Elite Fuel is meticulously designed to accelerate recovery, boost athletic performance, and replenish essential nutrients. These fluids work synergistically to repair damaged cells and facilitate muscle tissue recovery, minimizing downtime and enhancing overall performance. Packed with anti-inflammatory properties, it helps reduce inflammation and stress on the body, allowing athletes to train harder and recover faster. This fluid ensures you stay at the top of your game.

IM INJECTIONS

B12 / $30

Vitamin B12 is essential for maintaining a healthy metabolism, supporting blood cell production, and ensuring optimal nerve function. Deficiencies can occur due to various health conditions, often resulting in fatigue. Replenish your energy and vitality with the power of B12 to enhance concentration, elevate energy levels, and support overall bodily functions.

Tri Immune Boost / $40

Experience the ultimate immune system booster with our power-packed immunity booster featuring Glutathione, Ascorbic Acid, and Zinc. This formula delivers a high concentration of essential nutrients designed to enhance your immune response and support overall health. Fortify your body's defenses and maintain a strong immune system with this potent blend.

Glutathione / $35

Glutathione is an antioxidant that enhances skin health and works to even out your skin tone and promote a healthy complexion. Harnessing the benefits of cellular repair and rejuvenation, glutathione not only targets the signs of aging but also supports overall well-being. It helps combat fatty liver disease, improves insulin sensitivity, boosts brain health and reduces inflammation, promoting a balanced and healthier body. With the added benefit of stress reduction, glutathione delivers a luminous, youthful glow. Enjoy a rejuvenated look that reflects your inner health!
